

I love...

a read-aloud book to make your child feel special

Cindy Bracken

With love to Katie and Samantha.
I'm so blessed to be your mom!

I love...

a read-aloud book to
make your child feel special

Cindy Bracken

I love your little fingers,

I love your little toes,

I especially love to hug you,
and kiss your little nose.

I love you when you're happy,

I love you when you're mad,

I even love you when you're tired,
and feeling kind of sad.

I love the way you're growing up, right before my very eyes.

We have so much fun each day,
it's true that time does fly!

Every day you do something new,

You're beautiful and smart.

Now I know what true love means,
because you've filled my life
and heart.

I care for you all day and night,
it's hard to remember life before.

And every day I have you,
I love you even more.

I look at you each morning
and think,
my baby, you are so sweet.

I thank God each day for you.
You make my life complete.
